Members of the public can reach out to those members of the public body subject to that specific notice through the City Clerk (kthompson@bhcity.us). The City Clerk will then forward that person’s contact information to the specific member of the public body at least 8 hours before the scheduled public meeting. That member of the public body will then contact that individual prior to the noticed public meeting so that the member of the public can provide input on any business that is scheduled to come before that public body to that member of the public.

Kimberly Thompson, Benton Harbor City Clerk
